Canad Inns Furthers Commitment to Downtown

In continuing with the Vision Statement of Canad Inns – Bigger... Better... Today... and Tomorrow, we are excited to announce the purchase of Somerset Place, located at 294 Portage Avenue. Somerset Place – to be now known as Canad Centre Downtown is a 9-story office and commercial building with over 135,000 square feet.

“This new addition is a strategic acquisition for Canad Inns and furthers our commitment to Downtown Winnipeg”, said Leo Ledohowski, Executive Chair of Canad Inns.

Canad Centre Downtown is located beside the Radisson Winnipeg Hotel, owned and operated by Canad Inns and consisting of 263 guest rooms, banquet and conference facilities and Resto 12 restaurant. The Radisson is also connected to 270-vehicle indoor parkade. Just to the south, is The Metropolitan Entertainment Centre, which after 25 years behind closed doors, Canad Inns rejuvenated and re-opened. This national historic site is a unique food and beverage emporium and multi-purpose event centre featuring state of the art conference, banquet and meeting space. The MET is also the place to watch exciting home and away hockey games. Eat, Drink & Be Entertained at The MET.

Canad Centre Downtown, the Radisson Winnipeg and The MET are all located in the SHED district (Sports, Hospitality, Entertainment District) in downtown Winnipeg. Canad Centre Downtown is connected to Winnipeg’s downtown walkway system with a connection to Bell MTS Place. This connection will also provide Radisson hotel guests with access to the walkway system and Canad Inns has future plans for The MET to also be connected into the downtown walkway system.

Canad Inns is Manitoba’s largest hospitality provider, with seven Destination Centres in Winnipeg, one in Portage la Prairie, one in Brandon and one in Grand Forks, North Dakota. In addition to owning and operating the Radisson Winnipeg and The Metropolitan Entertainment Centre, we also own and operate Tavern United Bell MTS Place, two Garbonzo’s Pizza Pub locations and three Canad Centre commercial properties. Canad Inns is one of Manitoba’s Top Employers, and one of Canada’s Best Managed Companies for over two decades.
